THIS CAN HAPPEN.
The Retreat

Introducing an intimate and focussed gathering of senior leaders in workplace mental health

Our 24-hour getaway is an opportunity for senior leaders in mental health and wellbeing to gather and consider where workplace mental health is heading and what is needed to improve it.

This meeting of minds has been designed to enable leaders to participate in an intimate and confidential environment, allowing focussed discussion and learning time with their peers.

The global pandemic has raised the profile of workplace mental health and accelerated the need for companies to support their colleagues mental health.

We continue to support workplaces and feedback from many of our partners and friends has been a strong desire for people to now meet, discuss and learn from their peers.

The Retreat Location

Situated just south of Windsor the De Vere Beaumont Estate is an 18th-century mansion house, a chapel and a Georgian white house. The most stunning location to relax, network and spend quality time with peers.
